Wednesday A.M.

My dearest Bud:

I got your most welcome letter this A.M. and will write and tell you how thrilled I am about your coming Nov 3rd I'll be at the air port with the red carpet about 8 even if you don't arrive until 10th. I think this the most wonderful thing that has happened in a long time. I'll sure pray you see your house before you leave then everything would be perfect. You can't relax about that while you're here. I know you'll see it!

I can't express what Mother's letter did for me. Bless her! She was one in a million. If I can be just $\frac{1}{4}$ as wonderful as a mother, grandmother as she was I would feel my life mighty successful. I didn't do so much for her, But I can certainly vouch for the big love I have had and always will feel for her. Whenever I'm blue or depressed or very happy I think of her. She helped me so much in so many different ways. I too ask her for many things.

And know she is up stairs plugging away for us. I also know how happy she is knowing you & I will see one another soon.

I think the Red, White & blue shoes sound terrific. "Real Cool" Maybe you better buy them in a size 7 B. I'd rather have them a little big & wear a heavy sock.
I already have yellow & white Converse.
So use your own judgement.

Must close Mrs ready to go so I'll write again the end of the week.

I love you dearly & can hardly wait until you arrive in Melbourne. Sadie all my love
