IN THE MATTER

OF

John Quigley Esq.

Inventory of Personal Estate.

NOTE.—The inventory should be written plainly, and the sheets should not be fastened together continuously so as to make a long, inconvenient roll of paper. It should contain a particular statement of all bonds, mortgages, notes, &c., with names, dates, and payments or endorsements, and whether collectable or not, also all money on hand. It should be made out as of the time of the death of the testator or intestate. Two copies should be made—one for the Surrogate to file, and one for the Executor or Administrator.—The inventory must also be accurately footed, and the Executors or Administrators must swear to its correctness. See afft.
