ANCESTOR'S SERVICE.

"Any man shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor, who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to and rendered actual service in the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress or of any one of the several Colonies or States; or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence, or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a civil officer either of one of the Colonies or States or of the National Government; or as a recognized patriot, who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society S. A. E., Article III, Section 1, adopted June 16, 1893.

When the applicant derives eligibility of membership by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, the history of each of said ancestor's services and the intermediate generations of the pedigree may all be written upon these pages; but it is desired that the history of each ancestor shall be written upon a separate blank when possible. State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you found the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestors if known.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

He acted as Captain of the New Jersey Privateer "Lively," which was in commission in the naval service during the Revolutionary war, engaged in transportation of troops: Washington and his officers were among the distinguished passengers of the vessel during the Revolutionary war.

The following is a memorandum of the authorities for the above statements:
