NOTE: By Constitutional Amendment adopted May 17, 1927, Article III, Section 1, quoted below, was changed so that any man of 18 years of age is eligible to membership. Junior memberships have been abolished entirely.

ANCESTOR'S SERVICE

"SECTION 1. Any man shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of eighteen years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unflinching in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman, or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society S. A. R., Article III, Section 1, adopted June 3, 1907, and as amended.

Membership is based upon one original claim; when the applicant derives eligibility by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, separate applications, to be marked "Supplemental Application," should be made in each case and filed with the original.

State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you found the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestors, with dates of birth and death, if known.

By order of the Board of Trustees, May 3, 1911, the recipient of a certificate granted on this application agrees to surrender his certificate upon failure to pay his membership fee, unless his membership shall cease by reason of death or actual disability, to be determined by the Society of which he is a member.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

John Sinclair in 1762 of Captain Peter Coffin's Company, Wolfborough, New Hampshire, July 7, 1775. Constable John Sinclair Sr. "Please pay to Ensign Reuben Libby 46L 183 lawful money, being in full for his bounty as a six months' man in the Continental Service of Wolfborough." The town meetings of 1775 -1776 were held at the house of the above, John Sinclair. He was moderator of the Town Meetings of 1778-1780 1782. Constable 1779. Surveyor 1782. Doerkeeper 1781-1782. Innholder 1776 when all the training soldiers of Wolfborough met to train. He was elected Captain of Train Band. He was mustered into service as a soldier August 10, 1776. In 1783 he removed to Paulie, Vermont and to Essex Vt. in 1788. His son John married first at eighteen, Catherine Quigley and second her sister Phoebe Quigley.

Do not encroach on this margin, which is needed for binding.
